Non-Residents Eligibility to apply from outside Canada
Required Documentation
You must also do the following
A job offer from a Canadian Employer
A completed application that shows you meet the requirements of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act and the Immigration and Refugee Protection Regulations
Written confirmation from Human Resources and Skills Development Canada that the employer can hire a foreign worker
In most cases, it is up to the employer to get this written confirmation
In some cases you do not need a labour market opinion. See "Jobs that require a work permit but no labour market opinion"
Show that you have enough money to support yourself and your family while you are in Canada
Show that you are not a risk to the security of Canada
Satisfy a visa officer that you will leave Canada at the end of your work permit
Respect the law and have no criminal record.
Be in good health
You may have to provide a police clearance certificate
See "Police Certificates" for more information
You may have to have a medical examination